

A continuous innovation pipeline broadens the audience and increases purchase frequency

The 2026 roadmap adds an accessible everyday line, a proprietary Brazilian-flavor range and licensed collectibles, expanding consumption occasions without diluting the premium positioning

B.Eat

Already in stores

Individually wrapped biscuits at an accessible price point give customers a reason to walk in mid-week, not only for a gift. Limonê is already in stores, with Tubê and Stroopwafel to follow.

Benchmark: +22% visit frequency on the same customer base and 1 in 3 new triers returning within 30 days

Origens

2026 pipeline

A line built on Brazilian ingredients — Brasilê with Brazil nut and cashew, Marú with cumaru. No other artisanal biscuit chain in Brazil runs a dedicated national-flavor range.

Futi × Neymar Jr.

2026 pipeline

A licensing partnership with the most followed Brazilian athlete turns biscuits into collectibles across three price points — Card, blind-box Collection and Arena — with a national campaign in 2026.

Soft Cookie 2.0

2026 pipeline

The soft cookie range was reformulated for texture, flavor intensity and consistent execution across stores. Biscoitê PRO adds a zero-sugar, 12g-protein bar from Jan/27.
